

This proposal allows for the TSA to be the accuser, arbitrator, and the punisher. There is no separation of power here, and that will lead to arbitrary decisions. As a professional pilot this is a very frightening turn of events. There needs to be some separation of duties here.

I have been very impressed with the job the TSA has done since its inception. Don't give a bureaucratic organization this sole authority.